BOND ELECTIONS IN MISSOURI IN 2020

The following schedule shows the available bond election dates for political subdivisions and special districts in Missouri in 2020, and the deadline dates for filing notice of a proposed bond election with the election authority (i.e., county clerk or, where established, board of election commissioners). Under special circumstances set out in Section 115.123, RSMo, bond elections and school district levy elections may be held on days other than those shown below. Elections may be conducted by mail ballot if certain conditions set out in Section 115.652 are met.

Notice to Election Authority (Tuesdays)	Election Days (Tuesdays)
November 26	February 4 ⁽¹⁾
January 28	April 7 ⁽²⁾
May 26	August 4 ⁽²⁾
August 25	November 3 ⁽²⁾

(A presidential primary will be held on March 10, 2020, but no other elections are allowed on that date.)

Notes:

⁽¹⁾ Bond election only; no other issues allowed.

⁽²⁾ General obligation bond questions submitted on the following election days require a four-sevenths majority (instead of the two-thirds majority required for all other election dates):

- (i) April 7 (general municipal election day).
- (ii) August 4 (primary election day).
- (iii) November 3 (general election day).
