BOND ELECTIONS IN MISSOURI IN 2021

The following schedule shows the available bond election dates for political subdivisions and special districts in Missouri in 2021, and the deadline dates for filing notice of a proposed bond election with the election authority (i.e., county clerk or, where established, board of election commissioners). Bond elections and school district levy elections may be held on days other than those shown below in special circumstances set out in Section 115.123, RSMo. Elections may be conducted by mail ballot if certain conditions set out in Section 115.652 are met.
