BOND ELECTIONS IN MISSOURI IN 2022*

The following schedule shows the available bond election dates for political subdivisions and special districts in Missouri in 2022, and the deadline dates for filing notice of a proposed bond election with the election authority (i.e., county clerk or, where established, board of election commissioners). Bond elections and school district levy elections may be held on days other than those shown below in special circumstances set out in Section 115.123, RSMo. Elections may be conducted by mail ballot if certain conditions set out in Section 115.652 are met.

Notice to Election Authority (Tuesdays)	Election Days (Tuesdays)
November 30	February 8 ⁽¹⁾
January 25	April 5 ⁽²⁾
May 24	August 2 ⁽²⁾
August 30	November 8 ⁽²⁾

Notes:

⁽¹⁾ Bond election only; no other issues allowed.

⁽²⁾ General obligation bond questions submitted on the following election days require a four-sevenths majority (instead of the two-thirds majority required for all other election dates):

- (i) April 5 (general municipal election day).
- (ii) August 2 (primary election day).
- (iii) November 8 (general election day).
